Congress of the United States House of Representatives

August 10, 2011

The Honorable John Boehner
Speaker of the House
H-232 The Capitol
Washington, DC 20515

The Honorable Eric Cantor
Republican Majority Leader
H-329, The Capitol
Washington, DC 20515

WE NEED JOBS FOR AMERICANS NOW. PEOPLE WANT THEM; PEOPLE NEED THEM.

PETITION TO SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE JOHN BOEHNER AND MAJORITY LEADER ERIC CANTOR

Dear Speaker Boehner and Majority Leader Cantor:

It has been nearly 220 days since the Republicans took control of the House of Representatives, and no bills spurring job creation have been brought up for a vote. People want them, people need them, and that's what they want their elected representatives to focus on.

A jobs package is what is most needed to help our economy and put people back to work. On behalf of the undersigned constituents of the 7th Congressional District of Colorado, I am asking Republican leadership to end the political gamesmanship, work with Democrats, and act responsibly to innovate, educate and create goods here in our country so hard working Americans can get back to work and achieve the American Dream. We need jobs for Americans now. We need certainty in our economy now. We can do this together. Let's focus on building jobs and putting people back to work in the United States.

Sincerely,

Ed Perlmutter
Member of Congress (CO-07)
